

Sermon Notes: Love and Submission Key Scripture: Ephesians 5:21-33

What is the point of peace in the church if there is no peace in the home?

1. God created us from the beginning _____ and

- John Stott

(Gen. 1:27)
iod has created 2 sexes VERY differently so we can each bear istinct, but equal characteristics of the image of God by ulfilling the duties within the roles He has created us for.

Philippians 2:3-4 -

3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, 4 not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

Paul saying that husbands have been placed by God as an authoritative figure in the marriage relationship. (Col 3:18ff, Peter 3:1)

"Equality of worth is not identity of role."

JH Yoder

2 Questions:
I. Where does the authority come from?
So the idea of god-given biblical authority is	not	to rule over
and dominate, but instead,	_; to God and	for the benefit of those you've been placed over

	does this mean for husbands and wives?
	(Eph. 5:22-24) in ideas: and submission.
	nds: (Eph. 5:25-33)

self. For person that he oneself gospel of the hust seeking	ing of oneself to anybody is a recognition of the worth of the other if I give myself up, it can only be because I value the other so highly that I want to sacrifice myself for his or her self, in order may develop his selfhood, or she hers, more fully. Now to lose that the other may find his or her selfthat is the essence of the of Christ. It is also the essence of the marriage relationship, for a band loves his wife and the wife submits to her husband, each is to enable the other to become more fully himself or herself, he harmonious complementarity of the sexes. - Stott
Applica	ition:
1.	If you are married, dating, or engaged, have a conversation with your spouse about today's message.
2.	If you're not married read verses 31-32 again and marvel at the idea that Jesus left his place with the Father in heaven to be united with His bride, the church.
